St. Patrick's Day with PHAAUW

March 16, 2010

7pm

Hillcrest Congregational Church

We will have the usual Irish fare, especially music and dancing. Bring a spouse or other friend, especially those rare tenor voices to help us in our singing of the ol' Irish tunes. Lend your voices to the tunes as you sing along with Suzanne Salter and her piano virtuoso, Joan Miller.

Join us in welcoming the wonderful Irish dancers from the Moore School of Irish Dance in Walnut Creek.

Come in green and find a friendly smile to share your tales of Ireland, true or not, while sipping a cordial hot cider. Meet all the other leprechauns and have a fun evening with members of PH AAUW.

Presidential Team Report

AAUW has gone through some changes in 2009 ~ and there will probably be more in the future. We wanted to focus on an email received concerning our donations to AAUW Funds ~ a new name that includes LAF, Educational Opportunities (EF, to us), the Eleanor Roosevelt Fund, Public Policy and Leadership in Training.

Here are some interesting stats for the Educational Opportunities Fund during the 2009-10 funding year. AAUW gave an astonishing $3,061,000 in fellowships and grants during that period. There were 1,175 eligible applicants for American Fellowships and 66 were funded for a total of $1,235,000, 20% of which were women of color. There were 1,194 eligible International Fellowship applicants and 36 were funded for a total of $715,000. Other Grants were also given; i.e. Career Development, Community Action, and Selected Professions. So, your donations are doing great things for women!

A new Eleanor Roosevelt Fund research study: Why so Few? Women in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics is ready to be published and should have a major effect on the lives of women and girls in our schoolrooms and workplaces. We are very proud to say that the Letitia Corum fund will be used for the publication of this research.

Congratulations to all of you!

Fair Oaks Elem is finishing up their second series of Student Art & Music programs this year. They were introduced to Navajo Indian Weaving and Johann Strauss II. The 3rd- 5th grade student project was making their own loom, using a tongue blade as a shuttle and weaving yarn. The Kindergarten through 2nd grade made God's Eyes to demonstrate weaving techniques. Many thanks to the volunteer PH Branch members and an especial thanks to Kris Peerman who brought her loom and demonstrated weaving to the students.

Half The Sky LIVE

7:30PM

Century 16 Pleasant Hill

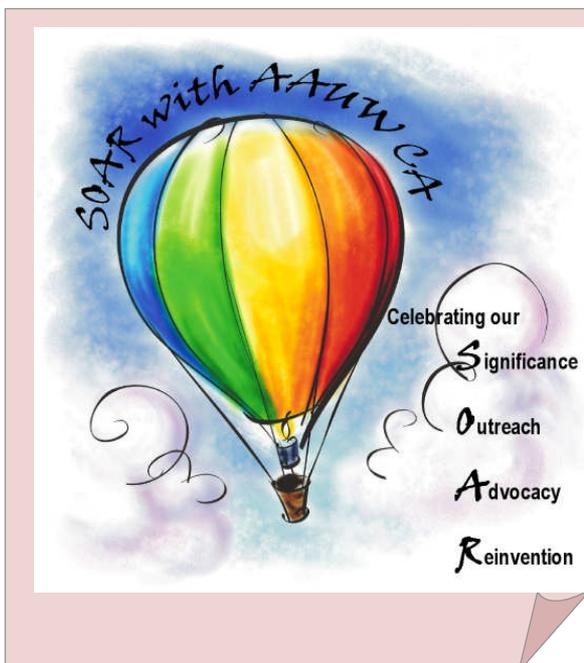

125 Crescent Drive

On Thursday, March 4th, 2010 at 7:30pm, CARE will present Half the Sky LIVE in movie theaters nationwide. Inspired by the best-selling book from Pulitzer-prize winning journalists Nicholas Kristof and Sheryl WuDunn, Half the Sky LIVE will celebrate International Women's Day with musical performances, celebrity commentary, and the world premiere of Woineshet, a powerful short film directed by Academy Award Winner Marisa Tomei.

As featured on Oprah, CNN, and Dateline NBC, Half the Sky remains a New York Times bestseller and a critical favorite across the globe. With Half the Sky LIVE, you can watch the pages of Half the Sky come to life onscreen as Woineshet chronicles the struggles of a young Ethiopian woman who ultimately triumphs over sexual violence and discrimination.

Broadcast right in our own downtown theater, this one-night-only event - featuring the authors of Half the Sky, Dr. Helene Gayle of CARE, Marisa Tomei, Maria Bello, Michael Franti and other celebrities and experts, as well as musical performances by India.Arie and Angeliqe Kidjo – will motivate you to participate in the growing movement to empower women and girls in the fight against global poverty. Half the Sky LIVE is the perfect way for AAUW branches to celebrate International Women's Day together and stand in solidarity with women and girls all over the world.

As an added bonus, Pleasant Hill Branch members will meet at Shaadzee Bakery Bistro diagonally across the street from the theatre at 5:30 PM for dinner and a casual book discussion. Please join us. Call Marlene (689-5439) or Kit (228-7503) for more information.

The Grand Slammers  Grand Slammers will play bridge on March 8 at the home of Marlene De Laurenti at 12:30 pm. Please call Gayle Garrison, 798-7528, if you would like to play. Each player contributes $3 toward Local Scholarship. We have lots of fun and welcome all levels of players.

* MATINEE IDLE will go to the movies on Thursday, 25 March. Call Marlene (689-5439) if you are planning to attend, or if you have any good suggestions for a movie. We always discuss the movie after over coffee or other liquid refreshment.

* MORNING BOOKS will meet on Wednesday, 3 March, 10 am, at Susanne Rheingruber's. Our discussion will be on Sarah's Key by Tatiana de Rosnay. The story takes place in France during WWII when French police, under orders from the Nazis, go door-to-door arresting all Jewish men, women and children. One critic says, "It will make you cry ~ and remember."

In April we will be reading books by Jack London ~ any of his works. We are planning a field trip to his former home in the Valley of the Moon in Sonoma County sometime in April, also. Please join us for great book discussions.

* IN INDELIBLE INK will meet on Wednesday, March 10th, 10 am at Marlene Maksel's. Our topic will be, "How Can I Simplify My Life." Normally you are encouraged to write some fiction if you don't have a "real-life" story to fit the topic. In this case, if your life is already simplified, or impossible to simplify, you might try some comic writing! We hope to see you ~ come and listen if you can't write anything.

* NIMBLE FINGERS will meet on March 11 at 10:00 am at the home of Alana MacDonald, 233 Western Hills Drive, Pleasant Hill. Please RSVP to Alana at Alanam88@gmail.com <<mailto:Alanam88@gmail.com>> or 933-4427. Need help with your hand or needle work? Please join us for help or just to visit.

* EVENING BOOKS will meet on Monday, 22 March, 7 pm, at Lynn Murphy's. We will be discussing an oldie, but goodie, Cry, the Beloved Country by Alan Paton. First published in 1948, the story is about a Zulu pastor and his son in South Africa when racial injustice was rampant. If you're rereading it after many years, maybe you will bring new insights to the discussion. Please come!

Public Policy

Marlene Maksel

The Senate confirmed by unanimous consent the nomination of Sara Manzano-Diaz to be the director of the Department of Labor's Women's Bureau. The Women's Bureau was established in 1920 and is the only federal agency exclusively devoted to the concerns of women in the workplace. This office played a critical role in helping to reduce the gender pay gap and advocating for passage of such landmark laws as the Equal Pay Act of 1963 and the Family and Medical leave Act of 1993. AAUW looks forward to working with a strengthened and revitalized Women's Bureau to advance our priorities for working women and their families.

Equal Pay Day is Tuesday, April 20th. This is the symbolic day when women's wages catch up to men's wages from the year before. Urge your Senators to support the Paycheck Fairness Act. I have a copy of AAUW's Behind the Pay Gap, if anyone wants to read it and learn more about the inequities in salaries for women. For example, in the age group 45 – 64 years, women earn an average of $44,808 per year while men in the same age group earn $67,040.

Be informed! And, act!

Ish Mendonsa & Dana Matthews Local Scholarships Chairs, Dana Matthews and Ish Mendonsa, thank all the members who have already donated to provide scholarships for our local girls needing help to go to college. There's still time to support the program and enable PHAAUW to give out additional $500 scholarships at the May meeting. We also want to thank those members who are generously offering to read the applications that will be coming in. Tune in next month to learn the winners and how many there are.
